

If you can imagine it, Thomas Anselment can make it into a unique piece of custom jewelry.

The owner of Atelier Thomas Anselment in the San Gabriel Court shopping center is a German Certified Master Goldsmith. He opened the shop June 3 with his wife, Michelle, and has been warmly welcomed.

He custom makes rings, bracelets and necklaces for both men and women.

Thomas can turn customers' rough ideas into beautiful concepts, a skill he learned at the Pforzheim Goldsmithing and Watch-making School in southwest Germany. He has several binders full of drawings in his shop.

Clients can also bring older jewelry into the store to be incorporated into a new creation.

Thomas uses the technique of cold forging to transform precious metal into brilliant and beautiful jewelry.
